Greetings Brothers;

I am writing this just as we are expecting some relief from the smoke of all the fires that have plagued us during the month of September. We can pray for the first responders that have done so much for the west coast infernos. It is overwhelming to think of the scale of destruction and displacement from these scourges.

I saw a small comment from the Archdiocese of Portland that said "If you feel helpless, go help someone". That should be a call to arms for us also, to step out and do what we do best, HELP. It is in our Fraternal DNA to be charitable and go to the aid of others. The need is so great that it will take a minimum amount of effort to find a need that will light up your giving efforts. The response can be in the form of time, talent, resources or encouragement.

I am not telling you anything you do not already know, but this is a time to mobilize the resources you have available locally because that is how we can fill needs that are missed by the big players like FEMA and the Red Cross. This is right up our alley, go for it Brothers!

Steve Wiley, SWP

STATE MADAM PRESIDENT - Christine Pfau

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

As members of the FOE, when we say "People Helping People", what does it mean exactly? Okay, you're thinking what silliness, of course we know what it means. We do charitable work for charities for Grand and State FOE as well as in our own communities. But do you know there is another side to it? What about those that are on the receiving end to giving? When we accept help from others, we are giving the gift of receiving. When we do good works for organizations and individuals, we get a warm, good feeling because we've helped someone. When we accept help from others, whether material or service, we give them the gift of feeling that same warm, good feeling. So, when someone offers to help you in some way, don't be too proud to accept it. You are in fact, giving them a gift.

So far, we have one visitation in October at Springfield. I so look forward to seeing everyone.

My wish for you.....is that you continue to allow humor to lighten the burden of your tender heart.

Fraternally,
Christine Pfau

MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORS

Hello Brothers,
I hope this
Beak and Quill
finds everyone safe
and surviving the
terrible, terrible
smoke that has
invaded the entire state from these
wild fires.

NET GAIN –
NET GAIN – NET GAIN

If you haven't heard by now, Grand Aerie has made major changes in re-enrollees. They are waiving the re-enrollment fee and the re-enrollee will not lose his years of service in the Fraternal Order of Eagles. Now is the time to do a membership drive and get these members back, who have been dropped. This program will end December 31, 2020.

As of this bulletin the state now has 5,463 members and need 946 members to reach our goal of a net gain. That is only 118 members per month for the entire state. Brothers, this is not an impossible task.

Focus on the 3 R's of membership. RETAIN – keeping your members engaged. REACH OUT – gaining new members each month. RE-ENROLL – making an effort to bring those we have lost

HAND IN HAND, WE CAN

If I can do anything to help, please don't hesitate to call me 541-944-8520.

year. I have planned on
giving out the
awards at either the District meetings or I shall travel to your auxiliary. A lot will depend on the road,
weather or fire conditions
that we are having.

I am asking that the Auxiliary Secretary send me the name of their
local membership
chairman. Not the secretary.

Thank you for all of
your patience this year.
Hand and Hand,
We Can.

Happiness always,
